Modification of the conference programme

Changes to the programme do neither constitute a right of withdrawal nor refund claim on the part of the persons registered, provided the character of the event as a specialist event in the specified subject area is not affected by the changes.

Cancellation of the Conference, Force Majeure

If the event cannot take place or has to be postponed due to events beyond the control of K.I.T. Group nor its client EACS can be held liable by participants for any damage, costs or losses incurred, such as transport costs, accommodation costs, financial losses, etc.

In case of postponement and/or cancellation of the event, K.I.T. Group – on behalf of EACS – reserves the right to either retain the entire registration fee and use it for a future EACS conference or to refund the registration fee to the attendee on a pro rata basis after deduction of the costs already incurred for the organisation of the 18th European AIDS Conference which could not be recovered from third parties.

Connectivity or technical issues

Attendees acknowledge that it is their responsibility to ensure a secure and stable internet connection, compatible operating system requirements and that their web browser is up to date to avoid connectivity or other technical issues when participating in the Conference. K.I.T. Group will use its reasonable best efforts in providing access to the Conference through third party channels. Each attendee who registers at the Conference agrees to the use and application of the conference platform. The use of the conference platform tool becomes part of the contract and is insofar a prerequisite for participation in the conference.

According to the current processing status, a data transfer of personal data to the US can be assumed. Data transmission to the US is based on the Standard Contractual Clauses (SCC) of the European Commission. Details can be found here: <https://eacs-conference2021.com/>

The Conference Secretariat has entered into a data processing agreement with the service partner of the conference platform tool and implement the strict provisions of the German data protection agencies to the fullest when using the conference platform tool.

The processing of all personal data (including the collection, storage, use, treatment, modification, transmission, blocking and deletion of data) is carried out by the Organisers in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR (Regulation (EU) 2016/679) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG).

The processing of personal data, in particular the forwarding of participants' contact details to third parties, is subject to the strict restrictions of the General Data Protection Regulation GDPR (Regulation (EU) 2016/679) and the German Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG). Contact data is only transmitted in accordance with Art. 6 Sec. 1 lit a-f GDPR if: (a) express consent, (b) performance or conclusion of a contract, (c) fulfilment of a legal obligation, (d) protection of vital interests of the data subject or another natural person, (e) public interest or exercise of official authority, (f) legitimate interest of the data controller and balancing of interests.

Further information on data protection

Further information on data protection (in particular on the rights as a data subject to information, objection, revocation of consent, blocking and deletion of personal data) can be found in the privacy policy. Personal data will only be stored within the scope of the statutory storage obligations. For data protection enquiries, please contact the data protection officer of K.I.T. Intellectual Property Rights

All content (trademarks, brands, copyrights, etc.) displayed at the Conference remain the property of their respective owners and are used for identification purposes only. The content and compilations published by the providers at the digital conference platform and/or on the event website are subject to the applicable copyright laws. The reproduction, editing, distribution, sharing and/or any kind of exploitation outside the limits of the applicable copyright laws require the written consent of the respective author and/or creator.

Downloads and copies of information, documents, files, presentations, and other content shared are only permitted if explicitly marked and solely for private use. The commercial use of content is prohibited without the consent of the author/creator. Insofar as the content on the event platform website has not been created by the organiser, the copyrights of third parties will be observed. Contributions of third parties are marked as such on the event platform website. Should a copyright infringement nevertheless occur, the organisers require a corresponding notice. The relevant content will then be removed immediately.

Film, photo and video recordings

The organiser will create image, film and audio recordings related during the Conference for educational purpose. This material can be shared and published within public reporting or used in social networks (Facebook, Twitter, Instagram) about the event without entitlement to remuneration. The participant explicitly gives their consent to the use of their images captured at the event for publications and communications relating to the event according to the effective law. You can withdraw your consent at any time by contacting the Conference Secretariat.

Liability

The conference organisers shall be held liable in the framework of a duty of care as a respectable business person according to statutory provisions. The liability of the conference organisers - for whatever legal reason - shall be limited to intent and gross negligence.

To the extent permitted by applicable law, K.I.T. Group, including all its management, representatives, fully or partially employed staff, and/or the Governing Board of EACS shall not be liable for any direct, indirect or consequential damages of any kind, loss of profits and/or loss of data arising from and in connection with the access and use of the platform and the participation in the 18th European AIDS Conference. The liability of commissioned service providers shall remain unaffected by this.

The attendee shall take part in the 18th European AIDS Conference at his/her own risk. Oral agreements shall not be binding if these have not been confirmed in writing by the conference organisers.

K.I.T. Group and its client EACS do not warrant the adequacy, accuracy and/or completeness of any information conveyed during the 18th European AIDS Conference and published on the platform.

The organisers do not guarantee uninterrupted and/or error-free access to the platform of the Conference. The organisers endeavours to fix such interruptions as fast as possible. In all other respects, the regulations from the connectivity or technical issues section apply.

Applicable law, place of jurisdiction

German law shall apply to the exclusion of the UN Sales Convention. As far as legally permissible, Berlin is agreed as place of jurisdiction.

Severability clause

If there is a determination of these Terms and Conditions to be ineffective or impracticable, then the validity of the Terms and Conditions remaining are not impaired. The parties are obligated to cooperate in order to replace the ineffective or impracticable clause by an effective or feasible clause, which results in the ineffective or impracticable clause being closed.

Right of modification

K.I.T. Group may make changes and/or additions to these General Terms and Conditions at any time. The attendees will be informed of such revisions from time to time. If the changes and/or amendments concern essential parts of the contract and if the rights of the attendees are substantially changed as a result, each attendee with an existing and paid registration will be informed separately with the possibility of consent.
