

PRESS EMBARGO

Language

The official language of the 18th European AIDS Conference is English. Russian interpretation will be provided for specific sessions.

Media registration

Press may register for the 18th European AIDS Conference free of charge. In order to complete the registration, the conference organiser will require a proof of the journalist's professional affiliation.

To access the registration guidelines and form, please visit the website at: <https://eacs-conference2021.com/media/media-registration/>

Photographs, audio and video recordings

Photographs or audio and video recordings are not permitted at the official meeting sessions of the Conference. However, this regulation does not apply to industry sponsored satellite symposia or booths in the exhibition hall; exhibitors may only take pictures of their own booths for documentation purposes.

Photography and filming will be allowed during official press events of the Conference.

Embargo policy

Data from abstracts and posters accepted for the 18th European AIDS Conference are under media embargo until Wednesday, October 27, 2021 (time zone BST).

The submission of the abstract constitutes the authors' consent to publish. If the abstract is accepted, the authors agree that their abstract can be published. Third parties are allowed to share the published work (copy, distribute or broadcast) under the condition that the 18th European AIDS Conference and authors are given credit, and that in the event of reuse or distribution, the terms of this policy are made clear. Authors retain the copyright of their abstracts, with first publication rights granted to the European AIDS Clinical Society.
