

PRESS EMBARGO

Language

The official language of the 16th European AIDS Conference is English. Simultaneous translation will not be provided.

Press Registration

Press may register for the 16th European AIDS Conference free of charge. In order to complete the registration, the conference organisers will require a proof of the journalist's professional affiliation.

To access the registration guidelines and form, please visit the website at: http://www.eacs-conference2017.com/index.php?article_id=128

Photographs, Audio and Video Recording

Photographs as well as audio and video recordings are not permitted at the EACS 2017 official meeting sessions. However, this regulation does not apply to industry sponsored satellite symposia or booths in the exhibition area; exhibitors may only take pictures of their own booths for documentation purposes.

Photography and filming will be allowed during official EACS 2017 press events.

Embargo Policy

Data from abstracts and posters accepted for the 16th European AIDS Conference are under media embargo until Wednesday, October 25, 2017 (Time zone GMT+1).

The submission of the abstract constitutes the authors' consent to publish. If the abstract is accepted, the authors agree that their abstract can be published. Third parties are allowed to share the published work (copy, distribute, transmit) and to adapt it for any purposes, under the condition that EACS 2017 and authors are given credit, and that in the event of reuse or distribution, the terms of this policy are made clear. Authors retain the copyright of their abstracts, with first publication rights granted to the EACS.
